

Breakthrough Questions to Grow Your Business

These questions from De'Andre Salter to help you open your heart to God's plans for you. Don't just answer but meditate on your responses. Use these questions as prayer points. If you ask the Holy Spirit to help you examine yourself, He will speak.

1. What do you want out of your business?
2. What are you committed to?
3. What are your key objectives?
4. Are you running your business or is it running you?
5. Are you spending all your time working in your business and little or no time working on your business?
6. What would your employees say about your leadership?
7. How do you handle problems, failures and breakdowns?
8. How do your customers rate your service? Do you measure your customer service?
9. How does your competition compare with your business? Do you measure the competition?
10. Is your business creating any equity or retirement for your future?
11. Do you know where your industry is heading?
